CLIENT CASE STUDIES

Festive Productions

<http://www.festiveprod.com>

Company: Special Events Production Company serving New York and Florida

Business Problem: Previous website was difficult to find and communicated a smaller business to clients than was actually present

Solution: Designed two websites: one using Flash, and one using ASP.NET. for greater searchability. Professional touch communicated the value of the company to clients resulting in greater sales opportunities

Length of Relationship: Three years

ProGhetto Entertainment
